IN VACATION.

Keeping the "Piece."—"Yes," said the man who was proud of his library, "whenever I find one of my books with a torn leaf I put it through a legal process."

"What legal process?" his visitor asked.

"I have it bound over to keep the piece."—Boston Transcript.

Not in Error.—During a street brawl an Irishman got struck in the eye with a stick, and he immediately started proceedings against the offender.

"Come, now," said the judge, "you don't really believe he meant to put your eye out?"

"No, I don't," said the Celt; "but I do believe he tried to put it further in, your honor!"—Houston Post.

Associating the Volstead Idea.

The corn in a silo on Hennessy's place

Turned sour and "worked" (as is often the case).

The cow ate the corn, and the milk in the pail

That evening was flavored somewhat like Scotch ale.

Hennessy drank some for supper, with bread,

He found that it suddenly went to his head,

So he cranked up his flivver, and, scorching through town,

Ran a couple of sheep and a constable down.

At all events, this was the gist of his tale,

That he told to the Sheriff who put him in jail.

But the Sheriff was sure that the yarn was a lie,

And so, gentle reader, am I!

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
